

Dear Client,

In our mandate with the Authorities of Cameroon to monitor the importation of all shipments to Cameroon a documentary verification by SGS prior to shipment is required.

To facilitate the process and to allow us to proceed rapidly with our intervention, SGS has launched a new web portal for Exporters to Cameroon.

Where you will be able to :

- Monitor your shipments
- Communicate directly with SGS
- Upload all required documents necessary for us to issue our Certificate
- Request a new partial shipment

A New "Declaration d'Importation" has been opened by your client CONGELCAM S.A., based on Proforma Invoice Number(s) FZ/1082/FEB/2022, and accepted by SGS. Your order number is : SGS-22912-11, GUCE Number PR692903, in Cameroon. You are thus kindly invited to connect to the following URL and upload necessary documents in our Exporter Web Portal

<https://export-cm.sgs.com/communication/user/new?email=SABY@SEAFOODMIDDLEEAST.COM>

A full user guide is provided online with detailed instructions on how to use the service.

We kindly request you to complete and to upload the documents below to the aforementioned web portal :

- Valuation Form (sent with this letter)
- Final Invoice
- Packing List or Similar
- Insurance Certificate
- Freight Invoice or similar
- Customs Declaration
- Exemption Certificate
- Import Regime Request
- Provisional Customs Declaration
- Transport Document
- Detailed packing list, weight/measurement details
- Detailed product information/specification
- Manufacturer's test report
- Contract, export price list, discount structure and/or other appropriate commercial documents substantiating the actual value of goods. However, should you be unable to forward such documents for any reason within the next 24 hours following SGS request, we will be compelled to use available information to issue a valuation opinion according to our mandate
